Teenage Auxiliary Sponsored by Club

Junior Woman's Club of Wilmington is purchasing equipment, with money they derived from polio clinics held during the summer months, for the Wilmington Community Hospital as a philanthropy project this year.

Mrs. William Mendenhall, philanthropy and health chairman has been busy with several other projects among them is the organization of an auxiliary of Banning High School students who will be learning the basic techniques of nursing.

The girls will work approximately 2 hours per week beginning Dec. 5 The school sponsor for the group is Mrs. Johnson of the home economics department Juniors have made the pinafore type uniforms for the girls.

Mrs. James Hartley, president, also announces that the Juniors will begin holding polio clinics again on February 22, 1961.

PINAFORE APRON—is the uniform of the members of the newly formed Auxiliary of teenage girls for Wilmington Community Hospital. The Auxiliary is sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Wilmington. (Left to right) Members who will serve 2 hours in volunteer work are Deanna Young, secretary; Carol Jean Anno, treasurer; Barbara Dennis, Jackie Delnort, president; Mrs. William Brown, treasurer of the Wilmington Junior Woman's Club; and Joyce Sappington, Linda Woods and Lucy Yates. The girls are from Banning High School.

Dinner Dance Plans Keep Juniors Busy

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, President of the Torrance Junior Women's Club, Marina District, C.F.W.C., and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, Chairman, announce plans for a dinner and dance to celebrate the holiday season. The dance will be held Saturday night, December 10, at The Palms Restaurant, 1925 W. Carson, Torrance.

Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m., followed by an evening of dancing to the music of Richard Dorothy and his orchestra.

Glittering decorations to help make the dance a gala occasion are being prepared by Mmes. Kenneth Boulter, Fred Smith and Elgin Logsdon.
